Independent Auditors' Report

The Managing Member PA Distributors LLC:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of financial condition of PA Distributors LLC (formerly known as PIMCO Advisors Distributors LLC) and subsidiary (the Company) as of December 31, 2004 and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in member's capital, and cash flows for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall consolidated financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PA Distributors LLC and subsidiary as of December 31, 2004 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules 1, 2, and 3 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(1) Organization and Business

PA Distributors LLC (PADCO), formerly known as PIMCO Advisors Distributors LLC, is a single member limited liability company wholly owned by PA Retail Holdings LLC (PARH), formerly known as PIMCO Advisors Retail Holdings LLC, which in turn is wholly owned by Allianz Global Investors of America L.P. (AllianzGl LP), formerly known as Allianz Dresdner Asset Management of America L.P. PADCO is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. As such, it serves as the distributor and provides shareholder services to certain institutional and retail mutual funds (Proprietary Funds) for which AllianzGl LP and its subsidiaries provide investment management and advisory services.

The Proprietary Funds include retail mutual funds (PIMCO Retail Funds) of two open-end investment management companies, the PIMCO Funds: Pacific Investment Management Series (PIMS), and the PIMCO Funds: Multi-Manager Series (MMS). PADCO also acted as distributor for the institutional classes of PIMS and MMS.

Allianz AG indirectly owns the majority interest of AllianzGI LP. Allianz AG is a global insurance company engaged in property and casualty protection, life and health insurance, banking, and asset management.

PADCO does not carry security accounts for customers and does not perform custodial functions relating to customer securities and is, therefore, exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(2) Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of PADCO and its wholly owned subsidiary, PA Advertising Agency, Inc. (PA Advertising). PA Advertising was formed in 1997 for the purpose of providing advertising services to PADCO. All significant intercompany items have been eliminated in consolidation.

(b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

PADCO has an arrangement with one of its financial institution's such that excess cash is invested in the financial institution's money market funds. At December 31, 2004, this investment is $89,183,000. Management considers investments in money market funds to be cash equivalents for purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows. This investment is carried at cost, which approximates market. The Company also maintains cash and cash equivalents in various federally insured banking institutions. The account balances at each institution periodically exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (FDIC) insurance coverage, and as a result, there is a concentration of credit risk related to amounts in excess of FDIC insurance coverage. Management of the Company believes that this risk is not significant.

(c) Depreciation and Amortization

Office equipment, furniture, and fixtures are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, generally five years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the remaining terms of the related leases or the useful lives of such improvements, whichever is shorter.

6 (Continued)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements December 31, 2004

(d) Income Taxes

PADCO is not subject to federal and state income tax. Ultimately, all partners of AllianzGI LP are responsible for taxes, if any, on their proportionate share of PADCO's taxable income.

(e) Distribution and Servicing Fees

Distribution and servicing fees are recognized as the services are performed. Such fees are primarily based on percentages of the market value of the assets under management.

(f) Marketing Service Fees

PADCO and PA Fund Management LLC (PAFM), formerly known as PIMCO Advisors Fund Management LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of PARH, have a marketing services agreement whereby PAFM compensates PADCO for the acquisition of new assets under management. Marketing servicing fees are recognized as the services are performed.

(g) Sales Fees

Commission revenues associated with securities transactions are recorded on a trade-date basis.

(h) Deferred Sales Charges

PADCO offers for sale a B class of mutual fund shares. Under this share structure, PADCO advances commissions to independent brokers and is entitled to recoup its marketing costs through an ongoing fee stream from the respective funds or through contingent deferred sales charges collected from the share purchaser.

(i) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

PADCO reviews its fixed assets and deferred sales charge assets as well as other long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Impairment of these assets is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount to the net undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by the asset.

(j) Use of Estimates

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(k) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of PADCO's financial instruments approximates fair value. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, and accounts payable approximates fair value due to their short maturity.

(3) Fixed Assets

The major classifications of fixed assets at December 31, 2004 are as follows:

Office equipment, furniture, and fixtures Leasehold improvements	$ 	4,897,923 1,259,665
Total fixed assets		6,157,588
Less accumulated depreciation	_	5,560,780
	$_	596,808

The Company recorded depreciation expense of $376,790 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

(4) Revenues

Pursuant to the distribution agreements with the various PIMCO Retail Funds, PADCO acts as principal underwriter for such funds. For providing such services, PADCO receives distribution fees, servicing fees, and contingent deferred sales charges.

PADCO receives a distribution fee equal to 0.75% of the fund's average daily net assets attributable to the Class B and Class C shares and 0.25% in the case of Class R shares of each PIMS and MMS fund, except that the fee is 0.50% per annum in the case of the Low Duration, Real Return Bond, Municipal Bond, and StocksPLUS Funds for Class C shares, 0.30% in the case of the PIM Floating Income, Short Duration Muni Bond, and Short-Term Fund for Class C shares, and 0% in the case of the Money Market Fund for Class C shares.

PADCO receives a servicing fee from each PIMS or MMS fund equal to 0.25% of the average daily net asset value of the Class A, Class B, Class C, Class D, and Class R shares, except with respect to Class A and Class C shares of the Money Market Fund for which it is 0.10% per annum.

Contingent deferred sales charges are received on the Class A, Class B, and Class C shares from the PIMS and MMS funds if an investor redeems an amount which causes the current value of the investor's account to fall below the total dollar amount of investments made during the past five years, except that no sales charge is imposed if the portion of the investment redeemed is attributable to reinvested dividends or capital gains distributions, or is derived from increases in the value of the account above the amount invested during the past five years. The contingent deferred sales charge on Class B shares in the first year following purchases is 5% of the net asset value per share and decreases to 1% of such amount in the sixth year. There is no charge after a six-year holding period. The Class B shares will convert to Class A shares after they have been held for seven years. The contingent deferred sales charge on purchases made on or after July 1, 1991 (new Class C shares) is 1% during the first 12 months after the purchase and nothing thereafter.

PADCO receives a sales commission (up to 5.5% of the public offering price per share) less any applicable commission to participating brokers (ranging from 0.25% to 4.75% of the public offering price per share) on sales of PIMS and MMS Class A shares. PADCO receives no sales commission on sales of PIMS and MMS Class B and Class C shares.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2004

(5) Commissions and Other Payouts

PADCO pays initial and trail commissions with respect to the PIMS and MMS funds to participating brokers at rates set by management. Initial commissions are paid for the sale of new Class B shares at a rate of up to 4% of the sale amount. Initial commissions are paid for the sale of new Class C shares at a rate of up to 1% of the sales amount.

Trail commissions consist of distribution and servicing payments to participating brokers for the distribution of shares, providing personal services to shareholders, and maintaining shareholder accounts. Such trail commissions, in total, can range from 0.10% to 1.00% of such average daily net assets for the PIMS and MMS funds.

In connection with the distribution of the Class B shares, PADCO advances commissions to independent brokers and is entitled to recoup its marketing costs through an ongoing fee stream from the respective funds and from contingent deferred sales charges collected from the share purchaser. For the year ended December 31, 2004, approximately $33,929,000 was paid to brokers under this program, which is included in deferred sales charges.

(6) Related Party Transactions

AllianzGI LP provides office space and certain accounting and administrative services to PADCO. The amount charged for such services aggregated $1,770,000 during 2004.

The payable to affiliates includes cash to be paid to AllianzGI LP in connection with various operating agreements between PADCO and AllianzGI LP.

PADCO earned $75,356,000 of marketing service fees from PAFM and $521,000 from other affiliates during 2004.

On a monthly basis, PADCO sold to PAFM at book value the then existing rights to future deferred sales charges and distribution fees related to Class B retail shares. Such sales aggregated approximately $36,083,000 during 2004.

(7) Benefit Plans

AllianzGI LP is the sponsor of a defined benefit contribution employee savings and investment plan. The plan qualifies under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code and allows eligible employees to contribute up to 10% of their annual compensation, as defined and subject to a maximum dollar amount determined from time to time by the Internal Revenue Code. Employees are generally eligible to participate in the plan following the later of attainment of age 21 or the completion of one year of credited service. PADCO matches and contributes an amount equal to the first 6% of annual compensation, subject to the Internal Revenue Service limits, contributed by the employees. The amount of expense incurred by PADCO related to this plan during the year was $988,000.

Effective January 1, 2003, an additional element has been added to the plan, which allows PADCO to contribute an additional amount ranging from 5.4% to 10.8% of eligible compensation to the retirement plan. The amount of expense incurred in 2004 by PADCO related to the additional feature was $1,191,000.

December 31, 2004

AllianzGI LP has a nonqualified deferred compensation plan pursuant to which a portion of the compensation otherwise payable to certain eligible employees will be mandatorily deferred, and pursuant to which such eligible employees may elect to defer additional amounts of compensation. The plan is maintained primarily for the purpose of providing deferred compensation for a select group of management of highly compensated employees, within the meaning of Sections 201(2), 301(a)(3), and 401(a)(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. Amounts deferred under the plan are invested in marketable securities as directed by the employees and are held in trust at AllianzGI LP.

AllianzGI LP has a profit sharing plan and an incentive compensation program that compensates participants on the basis of profitability and provides discretionary bonuses. Compensation under these programs was $16,862,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004 and is included in compensation and benefits in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

(8) Regulatory Matters

During 2004, PADCO, PAFM, and PEA Capital LLC, an indirectly wholly owned subsidiary of AllianzGI LP, reached settlements with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Attorney General of the States of New Jersey and California totaling $88.6 million related to mutual fund industry issues, including market timing, as well as revenue sharing and directed brokerage practices. PADCO's portion of these settlements is reflected in the consolidated statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2004 totaling $41.1 million.

(9) Contingencies

PADCO is subject to various pending and threatened legal actions, which arise in the normal course of business. The Company's management, upon the advice of legal counsel, believes that the outcome of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on PADCO's financial statements or business.

(10) Commitments

Independent Auditors' Report on Internal Accounting Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

The Managing Member PA Distributors LLC:

In planning and performing our audit of the consolidated financial statements and supplemental schedules of PA Distributors LLC and subsidiary (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2004, we considered their internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the consolidated financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- (1) Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
- (2) Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
- (3) Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against losses from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2004 to meet the SEC's objectives.
